Trinity College & St Patrick's Cathedral

Today you will visit Trinity College and St Patrick's Cathedral. Trinity College was founded by Elizabeth I in 1592, Trinity is the sole college of Dublin University. The Old Library houses some 200,000 of the college's collection of more than 2 million volumes. The most priceless manuscript it has is the Book of Kells, a Latin text of the Four Gospels with illuminated pages, which dates from about AD 800.

Travel down Dame Street to visit St Patrick's Cathedral. Jonathon Swift, the author of Gulliver's Travels was once the dean in this Cathedral and today Swift's tomb is in the south aisle. This cathedral is one of the finest examples of Gothic Architecture in Dublin.

Today's tour will be on foot, comfortable shoes are advised!

Classic City Tour

Today you will visit Dublinia & Christ Church Cathedral.

Travel back to Viking and Medieval times at Dublinia Museum, in the heart of the old city at Christchurch. See what life was like onboard a Viking warship, see the weaponry and learn the skills of being a Viking warrior. Try on Viking clothes, become a slave and stroll down a noisy street. Visit a smoky and cramped Viking house and learn about the myths and mysteries surrounding the Vikings and their legacy.

Explore the medieval crypt, the largest in Ireland, and the earliest surviving structure in the city. The crypt houses priceless silver, the cat and the rat, the cathedral shop and Ireland's first copy of Magna Carta. A mummified cat & rat are the most unusual inhabitants of the crypt, but also the most popular. Mentioned by James Joyce in Finnegans wake, they are known locally as 'Tom & Jerry'

Golf at the K Club

Home of the 2023, 2025 & 2027 Irish Open, The Arnold Palmer designed Palmer North is renowned as one of Europe's most spectacular courses. It has its charms and its challenges, enticing players to bring out the very best in their game. While it may be unlikely that you will be asked to tackle the course from the championship tees, this should in no way diminish the excitement of pitting your wits against Arnold Palmer, as this is precisely what you are doing.

Ranked regularly in the top three parkland golf courses in Ireland, this golf haven is a must-play course that has hosted the top golf players in the world.

The Ryder Cup in 2006, the 2016 Dubai Duty Free Irish Open where Rory McIlroy played the European Tour Shot of the Year and eleven European Opens testify to the importance of Palmer North to European golf

Golf at the Royal Dublin Golf Club

Founded in 1885 by Mr. John Lumsden, The Royal Dublin Golf Club is steeped in golfing history and presents a stern golfing examination on a truly magnificent links course and is widely accepted as one of the greatest links courses in the world. The links was originally designed by H.S.Colt, the world famous golf architect from Sunningdale. Since the Irish Open was first held here in 1894, the Royal Dublin has hosted in excess of 50 professional and amateur championships. These championships have attracted some of the best players in the world to Dollymount.

The Royal Dublin Golf Club hosted The Carrolls Irish Open from 1983-1985 with Seve Ballesteros winning in 1983 and 1985 and Bernhard Langer winning in 1984. The Club has also regularly hosted the Irish Amateur Close and the Irish PGA.
